AS WE GATHER

Today, we observe the second great act of the “holy Triduum,” the death of our Lord Jesus Christ on Calvary’s cross. While the name of the day may come from the phrase “God’s Friday,” it is, despite its horror, a good Friday. Virtually since the very beginning of time, man’s sin has infected the whole world. Sin separates us from God and one another, sin turns us inward, sin brings upon us the penalty of death.

T E N E B R A E

Today, we remember the day that would change the world forever, the moment when—by the Father’s deep love—nothing would ever be the same again. Jesus’ death would reverse the curse of Eden, bringing Paradise back to sinners.

We gather in silence to reflect upon our Lord’s Passion.

PROCESSION in silence

CALL TO WORSHIP

LSB 440 v. 1

♪ Jesus, I will ponder now On Your holy passion;
With Your Spirit me endow For such meditation.
Grant that I in love and faith May the image cherish
Of Your suffering, pain, and death That I may not perish.

Pastor: Sisters and brothers in Christ, on this most holy and solemn day, the Friday we call good, we are confronted with the serious nature of our sin, which made this day necessary. It is right and proper for us to reflect on and confess our sinfulness. Let us join the woman caught in adultery, the tax collector in the temple, and King David, and say “God, be merciful to me, a sinner.”

(A time of silence is observed to call to mind the specifics of our sin and prepare for confession.)

A MOMENT OF CONFESSION

from Isaiah 53

Pastor: Heavenly Father, this day we look upon a hill that held a cross that held Your One and Only Son.

People: He was despised and rejected by me...

Pastor: and as one from whom I hid my face

People: I despised Him, and esteemed him not.

Pastor: Surely he has borne my grief and carried my sorrow;

People: yet I esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted.

Pastor: But he was wounded for my transgressions;

People: he was crushed for my iniquities;

Pastor: upon him was the punishment that brought me peace,

People: and with his stripes I am healed.

Pastor: All we like sheep have gone astray; I have turned to my own way;

People: and the LORD has laid on him my iniquity.

Pastor: Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him... because of me.

People: he has put him to grief... because of me.

Pastor: He poured out his soul to death... because of me.

People: He bore my sin, and makes intercession... for me.

CALL TO CONFESSSION

LSB 440 v. 5

♪ If my sins give me alarm And my conscience grieve me,
Let Your cross my fear disarm; Peace of conscience give me.
Help me see forgiveness won By Your holy passion.
If for me He slays His Son, God must have compassion!

Pastor: God is merciful. Even before we were aware of the burden of our sin, God planned our salvation. He sent His only-begotten Son into this world of sin and made Him to be sin for us. It was my sin that He bore to Calvary's cross. It was the penalty for your sin that He endured. And it was because of His sacrifice that we are forgiven. As your called and ordained pastor, and at the command and promise of our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

OPENING PRAYER

Pastor: Dear Man of Sorrows, Who, with the weight of your body pulling against those nails and the weight of the world's sin pulling against your soul, You thought more of the sorrows of others than your own. You, Lord, Who was stripped of everything, yet still found so much to give; To your executioners, forgiveness; To a thief, Paradise; To your mother, a son. Even the tortures of a cruel Roman cross couldn't distract you from giving and forgiving. In spite of your suffering, still you cared, still you gave, still you put the needs of others before Your own. Grant us the grace, O Jesus, to see at the cross such a picture of love that we would never forget the depth of your love. Help us never to forget, Lord, that this is where we need to be- near the cross, beholding our Savior. For this is the fountain where love is most pure. This is where we are cleansed, not only from our sin but from our shallowness. This is where we are closest to You. For this is where love is. And this is where we need to be...

VERSE

LSB 440 v. 6

♪ Graciously my faith renew; Help me bear my crosses,
Learning humbleness from You, Peace mid pain and losses.
May I give You love for love! Hear me, O my Savior,
That I may in heav'n above Sing Your praise forever.

EPISTLE

Hebrews 4:14-16, 5:7-9

(Jesus the great high priest)

<sup>14</sup>Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. <sup>15</sup>For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. <sup>16</sup>Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need...

<sup>7</sup>In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. <sup>8</sup>Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. <sup>9</sup>And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him.

Your broken heart is the source of our salvation, the foundation of our hope, and the cause of our love. It is the most sacred place where all that was, is and ever shall be is held together.
